A lovely, typey yearling gelding bred in the purple, with the looks to be a showstopper and the pedigree to perform across any cowhorse discipline. He is balanced and correct, with a kind eye and quality conformation, and is expected to mature around 15hh+. His pedigree is stacked with proven performers and legendary bloodlines including Peptoboonsmal, Smart Little Lena, and Acres Destiny, giving him the genetic foundation for athleticism, cow sense and trainability. He is by Proud Lil Pepto (IMP), an Open cutting horse, multiple Open Campdraft winner, and two-time Rocky Rush Open Challenge winner. Proud Lil Pepto is also a proven sire, producing elite performers including Hunter View Conmaze, winner of the 2022 Nutrien Classic with Ben Hall and the 2022 Nutrien Graduate Inaugural with owner Ben Stanger. His dam, Spanish Acres, is a proven producer of successful challenge and campdraft horses, with progeny that are highly sought after in the sale ring for their ability, toughness, and trainable nature. With standout looks, elite cow horse bloodlines, and genuine versatility, this gelding offers a quality opportunity for anyone chasing a future show, challenge, or campdraft prospect.
